

Please do not listen to telemarketers who are asking the federal government to strip Wisconsin residents of the present NO Call List Law. These telemarketers invade our privacy. I pay for my phone service and should have a say in who uses that service and for what purpose. I consider telemarketing an invasion of my privacy and harassment. Telemarketers prey on our older citizens, taking advantage of them and confusing them. Once again please do not let telemarketers change our Wisconsin's No Call List law.
